+ Lyrics

VERSE 1

I'm standing on the edge of everything I know comfort is behind me, I've got to let that go there's freedom in the free fall when I'm falling into You God knows where I'm going, maybe I don't have to

CHORUS

I lay me down at the altar over and over, over and over from fear to faith I surrender

VERSE 2

You take all my questions as they're wrestled to the ground patiently you guide me beyond what I see now I don't have all the answers, trust is what I need my comfort is in knowing You're right here next to me

BRIDGE

I gain it all in the letting go so I'm letting go, You are in control I find my life when I give it up so I give it up, I can trust Your love

VERSE 3

my faith is for the taking, God, You can have it all about time I stop resisting, I'm not afraid to fall
