VERSE 1

5            6-    4                    1
fear and shame fight for my attention
5            6-                    4
without you, they would win
5            6-    4                    1
in the dark, my heart you won't abandon
5                            6-                            4
You promise your presence, and that's enough
5                            6-                            4
You promise your presence, and that's enough

CHORUS

          6-                    5
You are good you've always been 4                    1
You are good and you always will be 6-            5
God, Your love runs deep
4            1
Yes, Your love runs deep

INTERLUDE

5 // // // // 6- // // // // 4 // // // // 1 // // // //

VERSE 2

like a tree planted by the waters
help my soul abide in You though I'm prone to wander through the desert
You promise your presence, and that's enough
You promise your presence, and that's enough

BRIDGE x3

6-                            5
like I praised you there through the shadows
4                    1
I praise you here in the now
6-                            5
I'll praise you more for the not yet
4                    1                    (5/7 last time)
You're the God of it all
