+ Lyrics

VERSE 1

the world is loud, Your word is louder You say don't waste thoughts on tomorrow the enemy won't win this time not this time, not this time

CHORUS

Your love has the power to cast away my fear now every hour remind me I am Yours now a child of the God who holds it all oh God, You hold it all

worry is strong, Your ways are stronger You say nothing can separate us
the enemy won't win this time
not this time, not this time

BRIDGE

I lift my hands into the sky let faith swell inside my soul nothing takes You by surprise I trust You are in control

TAG

oh God, You hold it all
oh God, You hold it all
